

Use the following passage to choose the right answer from (1- 4):(2 Marks for each correct answer)

Mr. Green was very unhappy about modern education, and thought that young people nowadays are not being taught the importance of knowing the difference between right and wrong. One day he was taking a walk in the park near his home when he saw some young boys standing around a small cat. Mr. Green went up to the boys and asked them what was happening. One of the boys said to him, "We're having a race. We're telling lies, and the one who tells the biggest one, gets to keep the cat." Mr. Green thought that this was a good opportunity to teach the boys a useful lesson, so he said to them. "I've never told a lie in my life." All of the boys at once shouted, and they said "You've won! You can take the cat!"
